

Banish the boredom

Reading and writing activities for half term

What the best spooky song you can find? Try 'Thriller', 'I put a spell on you' and 'The Monster Mash'	Watch your favourite horror film or TV series with the subtitles on.	Check out Tute's spooky story recommendations on your student hub.
Find out about the history of Halloween by reading the following Newsround article: https://www.bbc.co.uk/newsround/63426466	Take this quiz to discover which Harry Potter spell you would be. Harry Potter Quiz: Which spell would you be? - BBC Newsround	.Create an advert for a sweet which gives you supernatural powers! It could be a written, radio or TV advert. Lights, camera, action!
Create a spooky story opening. You could write it or make a stop motion video or create a storyboard.	Create a spooky character and/or setting. It could be written, drawn or created. For example, use Lego or can you create some Halloween buns or biscuits?	Postcard from a Haunted Place Imagine a ghost, vampire, or werewolf is on holiday. Write a postcard from their point of view describing what they're up to: "Wish you were here! The moonlight over the cemetery is delightful."